"We support CASA because of the program's focus on doing what is best for abused children," states Marilyn Leming, representative of the local Theta Chapter. "Knowing through our help, CASA volunteers are being connected with children when they most need a voice gives me hope."

The Kay County Alumnae Chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta was one of CASA of Kay & Noble Counties earliest supporters. Local Thetas provided not only start up funds, but many of the program's first trained volunteers.

Not only does the Kay County Chapter make an annual donation to CASA of Kay & Noble Counties and support the program's other fundraising activities, like the recent Playhouse Fundraiser, the Thetas serve as ambassadors in the community for the CASA cause.

Here's to 15 more years of support and partnership between The Kay county Alumnae Chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta.
